

Maugersbury Parish Council

Code of Conduct for Members

Adopted December 2019

Part 1: Members' Code of Conduct

When acting in your capacity as a Member or Co-opted Member of Maugersbury Parish Council, you must show regard to the following seven principles of public life:

Selflessness; Integrity; Objectivity; Accountability; Openness; Honesty; Leadership.

In practice this will mean:

1. Promoting and supporting high standards of conduct by embodying the principles of public life and leading by example.
2. Acting solely in the public interest by never using your position to give any advantage, or cause disadvantage to a person; or gain any financial or other material benefits for yourself, your family, friends or associates.
3. Not compromising yourself and the Parish Council by taking care to avoid financial or other obligations that individuals or organisations might use to try and influence how you perform your official duties.
4. Making decisions based on merit when considering public appointments, awarding contracts or putting individuals forward for rewards and benefits.
5. Fully co-operating with Cotswold District Council's scrutiny functions to be publicly accountable for your actions and protect the reputation of the Parish Council as a whole.
6. Giving reasons for the decisions and actions you and the Parish Council take in an open and honest way.
7. Making sure that Parish Council resources are used appropriately by not using them for political purposes yourself, or allowing people you have authorised to use equipment to do so.
8. Taking all necessary steps to resolve personal conflicts of interest by declaring and registering your pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests using methods the District Council has provided, as well as removing yourself from positions of influence when an interest is apparent.

Part 2: Registering and Declaring Interests

Registering Disclosable Pecuniary Interests (DPIs)

Members and Co-opted Members must register their own DPIs and those of their husband or wife, civil partner or any person that they are living with as husband or wife or civil partner, as if they are their own interests, when they know about them.

DPIs are defined in Regulations made by the Secretary of State, and are set out in Annex A to this Code.

General registration/declaration requirements are as follows:

1. You must register your DPIs with the Cotswold District Council Monitoring Officer within 28 days of being elected or appointed to office.
2. You must register your DPIs within 28 days of the Parish Council's Code of Conduct being adopted.
3. You must notify the Cotswold District Council Monitoring Officer of any changes in your DPIs within 28 days of becoming aware of them.
4. You must declare any un-registered DPIs at any meeting of the Parish Council at which you are present, where a relevant matter is being considered.
5. You must register any DPIs declared at a meeting, within 28 days of the disclosing it.

You should register any suspected 'sensitive' interests with the Cotswold District Council Monitoring Officer, who will decide if they are 'sensitive' and if they should go on the public Register of Interests. 'Sensitive' interests are those which you suspect could lead to yourself or a connected person being subject to violence or intimidation.

You should be aware that not disclosing DPIs without a reasonable excuse is a criminal offence and could lead to investigation by the Police and your referral to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

The Effect of DPIs on Participation

Unless a dispensation has been granted, you may not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to any matter in which you have a DPI.

Unless a dispensation has been granted, you must withdraw from the room or chamber when a meeting discusses and votes on any matter in which you have a DPI.

Other Interests

You must, within 28 days of (i) this Code being adopted by the Council or (ii) taking office as a Member or Co-opted Member, notify Cotswold District Council's Monitoring Officer of the Other Interests set out in Annex B to this Code, where the interest is yours.

You must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new interest within any of the specified categories or change to any previously-registered interest, notify Cotswold District Council's Monitoring Officer of that new interest or change.

The Effect of Other Interests on Participation

Where you have an Other Interest in any business of the Parish Council and you attend a meeting of the Parish Council at which the business is considered, you must disclose to that meeting the existence of that interest at the commencement of that consideration, or when the interest becomes apparent (unless the matter is a 'sensitive interest').

Where you have declared an Other Interest in accordance with the above paragraph, then you are able to participate in the debate on the matter and vote unless:

- (i) a decision in relation to that matter might reasonably be regarded as affecting your well-being or financial position or the well-being or financial position of a member of your family or person with whom you have a close association or body described above to a greater extent than the majority of other council tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the parish affected by the decision;

or

- (ii) it relates to the determination of any approval, consent, licence, permission or registration in relation to you or any person or body described above;

and a reasonable member of the public knowing the facts would reasonably regard it as so significant that it is likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest.

If the circumstances specified above apply then, unless a dispensation has been granted or it is an excepted function, you may not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to, any matter in which you have an interest. You must disclose to that meeting the existence of that interest at the commencement of that consideration, or when the interest becomes apparent (unless the matter is a 'sensitive interest'), and then withdraw from the room or chamber when the meeting discusses and votes on the matter.

The above rules do not have the effect of precluding you from attending a meeting only for the purpose of making representations, answering questions or giving evidence relating to the business, provided that the public are also allowed to attend the meeting for the same purpose, whether under a statutory right or otherwise. However, after making your submission, you must withdraw immediately from the meeting.

Following any disclosure at a meeting of such an interest not on Cotswold District Council's Register, you must notify the Cotswold District Council Monitoring Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure.

Failure to comply with the requirements which relate to Other Interests is a breach of the Code.

Registering Gifts and Hospitality

You are required to register with the Cotswold District Council Monitoring Officer any gifts and hospitality worth £25 or more you have received.

General registration requirements are as follows:

1. You must register any gifts and hospitality with the Cotswold District Council Monitoring Officer within 28 days of being elected or appointed to office.
2. You must register any gifts and hospitality within 28 days of the Parish Council's Code of Conduct being adopted.
3. You must register any gifts and hospitality with the Cotswold District Council Monitoring Officer within 28 days of receiving them.
4. You must declare any gifts and hospitality at any meeting of the Parish Council at which you are present, where a relevant matter is being considered.
5. You must register any gifts and hospitality declared at a meeting, within 28 days of disclosing it.
